

ECONOMIC PLURALISM FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

June 1-3, 2007

University of Utah

Salt Lake City, Utah, USA

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

(Final program will be posted by April 23)

Friday, June 1

8:30–8:45 Welcome and Opening Remarks

9:00–10:30 Concurrent Sessions – Group A

[A1] Anti-Poverty Initiatives

Wendy Olsen, Chair

Martin Schuerz, “Poverty and Asset Building”

Rafael Isás, “Private Business Initiatives for Fighting Poverty”

Robert Ashford, “Universalizing the Right to Acquire Capital with the Earnings of Capital”

[A2] Ecological Economics

Martha Starr, Chair

Ali Douai, “Wealth, Satisfaction, and Values”

Leopoldo Rodriguez, “Scarcity Revisited: Thinking of Limits in the Age of Expanding Needs”

Michael Daley, “Reflections on Methodology and Ecological Economics”

A3] Economics of Social Welfare

Philip Kozel, Chair

Greg Hannsgen, “Are the Welfare Costs of the Business Cycle ‘Trivially Small’? A Critique of Robert Lucas’s Calculus of Hardship”

Randy Albeda, “New Poverty Research: The Bridging the Gaps Project”

Ric Holt and Daphne Greenwood, “Quality of Life and Local Economic Development: Mainstream and Heterodox Perspectives”

[A4] Gender and Class in the Political Economy of Turkey

Tonia Warnecke, Chair

Adem Yavuz Elveren, “Simulation of Gender Gaps in Private Pension System in Turkey”

Cihan Bozkus, “Economic Development and Socio-Economic Transformations in Southeast Anatolia of Turkey”

Sara Hsu and Adem Elveren, “Gender Gaps in the Individual Pension System in Turkey”

[A5] Methodology I

Sheila Dow, Chair

Gustavo Marqués, “Is the Commitment to Kuhnean Incommensurability Thesis a Good Basis for Constructing a Pluralist Approach in Methodological Discussions about Economics?”

Lina Ochoa, “Reinterpreting Economic Imperialism and Utility Maximization”

Michael Joffe, “The Importance of Heterogeneity in Economic Theory”

[A6] Money, Finance, and Capital Flows

Rudiger von Arnim, Chair

Alexander Paplomatas, “The Effects of a Two-Tier Currency Transaction Tax on Exchange Rate Volatility and Monetary Policy Autonomy”

Andre Modenesi and Rui Lyrio Modenesi, “Capital Controls and Financial Liberalization”

Simon Mouatt, “Evaluating Stephen Zarlenga’s Interpretation of the Marxist and Keynesian View of Money”

Tim Knight, “Re-Engineering the ‘Money’ Processes: Wealth and Transactions”

[A7] New Frontiers for Empirical Economics

Rob Garnett, Chair

Geert Dhondt, “How Prisons Increase Crime”

Susan Bush, [title TBA]

[A8] Policy I

Deborah Johnston, Chair

Ali Sayyadzadeh and Mehdi Mohammadi, “Corruption, Government Size, and Openness: An Empirical and Theoretical Analysis”

Harwood D. Schaffer, “Agricultural/Economic Policy for a New State in the Horn of Africa”

Perry Bezanis, “Human Nature and Continuing Human Existence”

[A9] Profit, Competition, and the Firm

Tuna Baskoy, Chair

Julian Wells, “Competition as Gravitation”

Louis de Mesnard, “On Companies’ Microeconomic Objective: Profit Rate versus Pure Profit”

10:30–11:00 Tea/Coffee Break

11:00–12:30 Concurrent Sessions – Group B

[B1] Behavioral Economics

Christian Arnsperger, Chair

Ozan Isler, “Implications of Framing Effects for the Future of Economics: Cognition, Social Norms and Ideology”

Wesley Pech and Marcelo Milan, “Behavioral Economics and the Economics of Keynes”

[B2] Habits, Conventions, and Bounded Rationality

Anne Mayhew, Chair

Luiz Rogério de Camargos, “Socially Constructed Expectation”

Rouslan Koumakhov, “Herbert Simon Revisited: Bounded Rationality, Coordination and Social Representations”

Roger McCain, “Evolutionary Schemas for Unified Socio-Economic Science”

Chris Brown, “Why Do Consumers Borrow? An Application of the Institutional Theory of Habit Selection”

[B3] Case Studies in Social and Economic Development

Günseli Berik, Chair

Manoj Kumar Agarwal, “Low Demand for Development in the Rapidly Growing Indian Economy”

Peter Jacobs, “Agrarian Reform and the Developmental State in Post-Apartheid South Africa”

Robert L. Reinauer, “Women, War and Peace: Social Change in the Context of a Failed Peace Process”

[B4] Labor Market Issues I

Zdravka Todorova, Chair

Anil Duman, “Jobless Growth in Turkey: Linkages between Output and Labor Markets”

Ipek Ilkcaracan and Haluk Levent, “Collective Bargaining”

Roberto Pedace and Stephanie Rohn, “Minimum Wages and Unemployment Duration”

[B5] Perspectives in Environmental Economics

Mary King, Chair

Micheal Carr, “Money and the Environment: A Heterodox Perspective”

Paul P. Christensen, “Sins of Omission and Sins of Commission”

Sirisha Naidu and Panayiotis T. Manolakos, “The Environment in New Institutional and Marxian Economics”

[B6] Pluralism I

Alan Duhs, Chair

Đuro Medić, “The Concept, Characteristics, and Relevance of Pluralism in Economics”

Ioana Negru, “On Homogeneity and Pluralism within Economic Schools Of Thought”

Lisa Morrison and Eric Hake, “Perestroika and Progress: The Post-Autistic Movement in Context”

[B7] Social Structures of Accumulation and Class Structures

Al Campbell, Chair

David M. Kotz, “Social Structures of Accumulation and the Rate of Capital Accumulation: A Revised Understanding of the SSA Theory”

Erik Olsen, “The Articulation of Class Structures in a Developing Country: A Model”

Rogeier Kamerling, “Neoliberalism and Finance Capital: A Detailed Empirical Look at the Effects of Two Major Changes in the Banking Laws in the United States”

[B8] Teaching Economics with System Dynamics

Michael Radzicki, Chair

I. David Wheat Jr., “MacroLab: A Simulation Model and Interactive Learning Environment for Teaching an Undergraduate Course in Macroeconomic Dynamics”

Michael Radzicki, “A Graduate Course in Macroeconomic Dynamics”

Steve Keen, “A Simple Approach to Modeling Endogenous Money”

12:30–1:30 Lunch (provided on-site)

1:30–3:00 Concurrent Sessions – Group C

[C1] Endogenous Money

Steve Keen, Chair

Constantinos Alexiou and George Anastasiadis, “Theoretical Considerations of the Endogenous Money Hypothesis: The Turkish Experience”

Gokcer Ozgur and Korkut Erturk, “The Theory of Endogenous Money in the Age of Financial Liberalization”

[C2] Criticisms of Mainstream Theory

Andrew Mearman, Chair

Benjamin Mitra-Kahn, “Debunking the Myth Surrounding Computable General Equilibrium Models”

Dennis Badeen, “Neoclassical Axioms and Ontology: A Response to Arnsperger and Varoufakis’s ‘What is Neoclassical Economics?’”

Jim Case, “Breaking the Stranglehold”

[C3] Culture and Cultural Capital

William Waller, Chair

John Tomer, “Intangible Capital, Economic Growth, and Governmental Policy”

Joshua Frank, “The Social Construction of Market Value and its Application to Labor Markets”

Quentin Duroy, “An Exploration of the Concept of Cultural Capital”

[C4] Development Theory and Practice: Critical Views I

Gilles Raveaud, Chair

Jan Kregel, “Employment and the Millennium Development Goals”

Peter Söderbaum, “Science, Ideology and Development: Is There a ‘Sustainability Economics’?”

Stephen Cullenberg and Anjan Chakrabarti, “Rethinking Poverty Beyond the World Bank: Class and Ethical Dimensions of Poverty Eradication”

[C5] Perspectives on Inequality

Terrence McDonough, Chair

David Kiefer and Shahrukh Rafi Khan, “Revealed Social Preferences for Equality and Growth”

Hasan Gürak, “Production Factors-Productive Factors and Income Distribution”

Jeff Bookwalter, “Keeping Up With the Joneses: The Importance of Relative Standing to Well-Being”

[C6] Labor Market Issues II

Frederic Lee, Chair

Ingrid Rima, “Reinterpreting the Microeconomic Foundations for Understanding Labor Market Outcomes”

Martha Starr, “Media Representations of Economic News”

Michael Hillard, “Petty-Bourgeois Syndicalists on the Paper Plantation? The Transformation of the Maine North Woods, 1940-2000”

[C7] Marxian Economics I

David Kristjanson-Gural, Chair

Elizabeth Ramey, “Poverty in Plenty: Class and the Industry of Agriculture”

Fabien Tarrit, “Analytical Marxism: Between Mainstream and Heterodoxy”

Faruk Eray Duzenli, “How Marx Avoids Fetishizing Labor”

[C8] Pluralism II

Yanis Varoufakis, Chair

Fred Jennings, “Hammers, Nails and New Constructions - Orthodoxy or Pluralism: An Institutional View”

Roger Elletson, “A MEESA Response to ICAPE: Revisiting the Direction of Heterodoxy”

Romain Kroës, “Which Pluralism?”

[C9] World Political Economy

Eric Schutz, Chair

Alan Freeman, “The Concept of Transition in Theories of World Political Economy”

Lucy Badalian, “The Wealth of the Emerging World - The Next 15-25 Years”

Radhika Desai, “World Money and the End of U.S. Imperialism”

[C10] Pluralist Undergraduate Economics: What Can We Learn From Established Programs? (Roundtable)

Chuck Barone, Chair

Philip Kozel and Benjamin Balak, “Reforming the Economics Curriculum at Rollins College”

Ramón García Fernández and Rosa Maria Marques, “The Creation of SEP”

Tom Green, “Accelerating Curriculum Reform in University Economics Departments: What is the Role for Activism?”

3:00–3:30 *Tea/Coffee Break3:30-5:30 Plenary Session I, “Pluralism and Economic Inquiry”

Rob Garnett (Texas Christian University), Chair

John Davis (University of Amsterdam and Marquette University), “The Turn in and Return of Orthodoxy in Recent Economics”

Frederic Lee (University of Missouri, Kansas City), [title TBA]

Diana Strassman (Rice University), [title TBA]

Peter Söderbaum (Mälardalen University, Västerås), Commentator

5:30–7:00 Wine and Cheese Reception (University of Utah Art and Architecture Center)

Saturday, June 2

8:30-10:00 Concurrent Sessions – Group D

[D1] Development Theory and Practice: Critical Views II

Michael Hillard, Chair

Deborah Johnston, “Bias, Not Error: Assessments of the Economic Impact of HIV/AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa”

Ebru Kongar and Mark Price, “Is White the New Blue? The Impact of Trade in Services on Women”

Wendy Olsen, Daniel Neff, J. Rangaswamy, and Vincent Ortet, “Social Theory and a Qualitative Enquiry about Indian Employment”

[D2] The Individual in Heterodox Economics

Paul Lewis, Chair

Anne Mayhew, “Heterodox Aggregates: Class, Institutions, and Cultures in the 21st Century”

Christian Arnsperger, “Epistemic Pluralism in Economics as a Result of Economic Complexity: On Some Unexpected Implications of Cutting-Edge Agent-Based Modeling”

John B. Davis, “Complex Individuals”

[D3] Financial Systems and Sustainability

Christopher Niggle, Chair

Garrett Wyse, “A Global Public Good (GPG) Perspective on Developing a System for Providing Access to Financial Services for All”

Jean Maier, “Banking of a Future: Finance and Environmental Sustainability”

[D4] Growth Theory

Fadhel Kaboub, Chair

Hasan Gürak, “An Alternative Growth Model”

Mário Bertella, “Kaleckian Growth Models”

Yongbok Jeon, “Growth Accounting and Total Factor Productivity: Tautology or What?”

[D5] Marxian Economics II

Stephen Cullenberg, Chair

Andrew Kliman, “The Truthiness of Veneziani’s Critique of Marx and the TSSI”

David Kristjanson-Gural, “Money, Demand, and Value”

Nick Potts, “Some Preliminary Thoughts on Knowledge-Based Production: 49 Seconds on Mustafar”

[D6] Neoliberalism

Mehrene Larudee, Chair

Firat Demir, “Financial Anarchy, Capital Flow Volatility and Fixed Investment in Developing Countries: Asymmetric Effects of Capital Flows Revisited”

Keith Nurse, “Deindustrialization and Migration under Neo-Liberalism: Is the Diasporic Economy a Solution for Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC)?”

Nursel Aydiner-Avsar, “Does Neoliberalism Lead to De-Industrialization? A Closer Look at Turkish Industrialization Experience from a Developmental Perspective”

[D7] Pluralism III

Peter Söderbaum, Chair

Andrew Mearman, “Rhetorical Dualism and the Orthodox/Heterodox Distinction in Economics”

Sheila Dow, “Cultural Pluralism and Pluralist Economics”

Vinca Bigo, [title TBA]

[D8] Power and Agency

Dan Nuckols, Chair

Eric A. Schutz, “Distributive Justice and Power Theories of Inequality”

Mary Wrenn, “Agency and the Great Capitalist Restoration”

Michael Joffe, “Power Relationships between Competitors”

[D9] Topics in Post Keynesian Economics

Marc Lavoie, Chair

Korkut Erturk, “Speculation, Liquidity Preference and Monetary Circulation”

Tuna Baskoy, “Post Keynesian Theory of Dynamic Market Competition”

Wenge Huang, “Keynes’s Finance Motive and General Equilibrium Approach: A New Model of Interest Rate Determination”

[D10] Virtual Economies and Computer Gaming

Amy Cramer, Chair

Benjamin Balak, “Computer Games and Teaching Economics in Historical Perspective”

Joseph Rebello, “Pluralist Visions of Virtual Economies: Heterodox Economics and the Real World of Video Games”

10:00–10:30 Tea/Coffee Break

10:30-12:00 Concurrent Sessions – Group E

[E1] Austrian Economics as Heterodoxy

Ted Burczak, Chair

Andrew Farrant and Edward McPhail, “Austrian Economics, Heterodox Political Economy, and Contested Exchange”

Paul Lewis and Jochen Runde, “Subjectivism, Social Structure, and the Possibility of Socio-Economic Order: The Case of Ludwig Lachmann”

Virgil Storr, “Hayek and Lefebvre on Market Space and Extra-Catallactic Relationships”

[E2] Economic Analysis with System Dynamics

Oleg Pavlov, Chair

Khalid Saeed, “Can Trend Forecasting Be a Reliable Policy Tool?”

Linwood Tauheed, “Race, Class, and Culture Influenced Nonlinearities in Reading Cognitive Skill Growth”

Oleg Pavlov, “A Microdynamic Analysis of a Common Resource Problem”

Scott T. Fullwiler, “A System Dynamics Model of Central Bank Operations”

[E3] Rethinking the Economics of the Environment: Why a Heterodox Approach Matters

Neva Goodwin, Chair

Frank Ackerman, “Economic Theory for a Warming World”

Kristen A. Sheeran, “Debunking Free Market Environmentalism”

Paul Baer, “Managing Scientific Uncertainty and Ethical Controversy in Climate Analysis: Catastrophic Impacts, Distributive Justice, and Risk Aversion in the Stern Review”

[E4] Feminist Economics

Diana Strassmann, Chair

Chiara Piovani, “The Unquestioned Discrepancy between the Mainstream Theory and Practice of Development: How Feminist Economics Helps to Close the Gap”

Gunseli Berik, “The Feminist Debate on Labor Standards and International Trade: Lessons from Bangladesh”

Hande Togrul and Emel Memis, “Dreaming About ‘Good’ Economics: Possible?”

[E5] Financialization, Asset Values, and the Firm

Scott Gassler, Chair

Mehrene Larudee, “Capital Gains: A Neglected Area of Political Economy”

Ozgur Orhangazi, “Financialization and Capital Accumulation in the Non-Financial Corporate Sector”

Rohit, “Concentration, Finance, and Growth”

[E6] Freedom, Human Rights, and Reason

Alexander Dow, Chair

Brandon Smith, “Liberty and Freedom: A Capabilities Approach”

Kevin Quinn, “Game-Theoretic Indeterminacy, Freedom, and Reason”

Manuel Couret Branco, “Economics against Human Rights”

[E7] Gifts, Markets, and Grassroots Economic Initiatives

Benjamin Balak, Chair

Enrico Luzzati, “A Study of Interest- and Community-Based Cooperatives, with Special Reference to Mozambique and Senegal”

Ioana Negru, “Gifts and Markets: A Pluralist Perspective”

Philip Kozel, “Communities and Commodities”

[E8] On Writing the Pluralist Text

Stephen Ziliak, Chair

John Reardon, “A Handbook for Pluralist Economics Education”

Marc Lavoie and Mario Seccareccia, “An Exercise in Post-Autistic Economics: Attempting to Rewrite a Mainstream Textbook”

Stephan Boehm, “Would ‘Regress’ Constitute ‘Progress’ in Economics?”

[E9] Pluralism IV

Romain Kroës, Chair

Brian O'Boyle and Terrence McDonough, "Critical Realism, Marxism, and the Critique of Neoclassical Economics"

Rogier De Langhe, "Heterodox Economists: How Strategic is Their Pluralism?"

William Waller, "Is Convergence among Heterodox Schools Possible, Meaningful and/or Desirable?"

[E10] Energy Economics

Leopoldo Rodriguez, Chair

Ken Zimmerman, "Energy Markets: An Overview of Construction of Energy Markets, Assessment of Their Results, and Their Future"

Kevin Marechal, "What Evolutionary Economics Has to Say about Climate Policy"

Lisi Krall and Gerald Surette, "A Veblenian Perspective on Peak Oil"

12:00-1:00 Lunch (provided on-site)

1:00-2:30 Concurrent Sessions – Group F[F1] Theodore Burczak's Socialism after Hayek

Emily Chamlee-Wright, Chair

Erik Olsen

Kevin Quinn

Virgil Storr

Ted Burczak, Respondent

[F2] Critical Perspectives on Business Schools and Schooling

Susan F. Feiner, Chair

Ebrahim Hosseini Nasab, "Pluralism in Graduate Education in Economics"

Kenneth N. Ehrensall, "[Re]producing the Foot Soldiers of Capitalism"

Sarah Stookey, "The 'Values' of Management"

[F3] Globalization and Economic Performance

David Kotz, Chair

Hee-Young Shin, “The Transformation of the Korean Labor Market under Globalization”

John Hall and Udo Ludwig, “Economic Pluralism and Neoclassical Economics: Explaining Economic and Social Reality in the Eastern Region of Germany”

Scott Gassler, “The Political and Social Economics of Alternative Globalization”

[F4] Labor Market Issues III

Roberto Pedace, Chair

Cihan Bilginsoy, “Union Wage Gap in the Construction Workforce”

Joshua Frank, “Explaining Labor Markets in the Popular Arts: Superstar Phenomenon or Recommendation Markets?”

Mary C. King, Leopoldo Rodriguez, and Carrie Cobb, “Working Semi-Formally: Mexican Immigrants in an Urban Labor Market”

[F5] Lessons from History

Gustavo Marqués, Chair

Alexander Dow, “History in Economics: The Work of Harold Innis as Historical Economics”

Carlos Eduardo Suprinyak, “The Political Economy of Demographic Management”

Stephen Ziliak, “The Fable of the Bee and the Wasp”

[F6] Panel in Honor of E.K. Hunt’s Contributions to Economic Pluralism (Roundtable)

Robin Hahnel, Chair

Ferda Dönmez Atbaşı, “Marx, Alienation and Academia”

Hüseyin Özel, “A Bridge over Troubled Waters? Radical Institutionalism and ‘Anti-Essentialist’ Reading of Marx”

Justin Elardo, “Ethics in the Absence of a Theory of Value: A Radical Critique of Sen’s Capabilities Approach”

Ingrid Rima, Discussant

Mark Lautzenheiser, Discussant

[F7] Pluralism in Economics Education I

David Colander, Chair

Alan Duhs, “Is Economic Philosophy a Subject Worth Teaching?”

John Willoughby, “Let a Thousand Models Bloom: Towards an Institutional Economic Analysis of Western-Inspired Higher Educational Innovations in the Gulf”

Rob Garnett, “Academic Freedom and Undergraduate Economic Education: Challenges and Opportunities”

[F8] Rationality, Subjectivity, and the Individual

Andrew Farrant, Chair

David Vazquez-Guzman, “Historical Background of Rationality”

Tai Young-Taft, “The Taming of the Economic Individual”

Yahya Mete Madra, “Late Neoclassical Economics: Restoration of Theoretical Humanism in Contemporary Mainstream Economics”

[F9] Topics in Economic Development

Ramón García Fernández, Chair

Gilberto Libanio, “Manufacturing Industry and Economic Growth in Latin America: A Kaldorian Approach”

Kaan Berberoglu and Feridun Tur, “Pluralism for Development: The South Korean Experience”

Omar Dahi, “Rethinking the Boundaries of International Economic Interaction”

2:30-2:45 Tea/Coffee Break

2:45-4:15 Concurrent Sessions – Group G

[G1] Andrew Kliman's Reclaiming Marx's "Capital": A Refutation of the Myth of Inconsistency

Alan Freeman, Chair

Bruce Roberts

Erik Olsen

Hans Ehrbar

Mat Forstater

Andrew Kliman, Respondent

[G2] Capitalism and Change

Al Campbell, Chair

James Sawyer, “Relative Capitalism”

Massimo Ricottilli, Rainer Andergassen, and Franco Nardini, “Self-Organized Criticality, Innovation Waves, and Investment”

Alexandra Godoi, “The Firm and the ‘Pharos’”

Michael Joffe, “What Explains the Dynamism of Capitalism?”

[G3] Development Theory and Practice: Critical Views III

Günseli Berik, Chair

Cameron Weber, “Questioning Development Orthodoxy”

Rosemary Russo, “The Feminist Critique of Neoclassical Development Economics: Modern Implications for a Globalizing World”

Tonia Warnecke, “Macroeconomic Policy at the World Bank: Where are the Women?”

[G4] Institutional Economics: Old and New

Virgil Storr, Chair

Andrew Farrant and Edward McPhail, “Robert Solow and Radical Economics”

Klaus Nielsen, “Old and New Institutional Economics: A Stylized Comparison of Core Presuppositions”

José Manuel Lasiera, “The Idea of Entrepreneurship in Austrian Economics and Labor Institutions in the Globalized Economy”

[G5] Institutionalism and Post Keynesian Connections

Anne Mayhew, Chair

Chris Niggle, “Evolutionary Keynesianism: The Institutionalist-Post Keynesian Approach to Macroeconomics”

Linwood Tauheed, “A Proposed Methodological Synthesis of Post Keynesian and Institutional Economics”

Zdravka Todorova, “Towards an Anthropogenic Approach to Households in a Monetary Theory of Production”

[G6] Methodology II

Daniel Gay, Chair

Ali Dini, “Hegemony of Formalism in Economics and Suppression of Intellectual Advantages”

Tamás Dusek, “Methodological Problems of Neoclassical Treatment of Space in Economics”

Jesús Muñoz, “Keynes and Heterodoxy: A Methodological Study”

[G7] New Work from UTIP: Inequality and Structural Change

Travis Hale, Chair

Laura Spagnolo, "Pay Inequality in Cuba during the Special Period"

Olivier G. Giovannoni, "Unemployment and the Macroeconomic Dimension of Inequality"

Deepshikha Roychowdhury, "European Wage Structure, 1980-2005: How Much flexibility Do We Have?"

Travis Hale, "The Changing Geography of American Inequality: From IT Bust to Big"

[G8] Heterodoxy vis-à-vis Mainstream Economics

Rob Garnett, Chair

David Colander, "How the Economics Profession Really Works: Heterodox Economics through Mainstream Eyes"

Ric Holt, "The Changing Face of Economics: The Role of Heterodox Economics in Changing the Direction of Mainstream Economics Today"

Tony Lawson, "Ontology and Pluralism"

[G9] Theory of the Firm

Nick Potts, Chair

Gustavo Vargas Sánchez, "The Theory of the Firm: A Comparative Analysis between the Labor Theory of Value and the Post Keynesian Theory"

Steve Keen, "The Complete Guide to Debunking the Neoclassical Theory of the Firm"

Victor Pelaez, Ruth Hofmann, and Marcelo Melo, "Evaluating the Capabilities of the Firm"

4:15-4:30 Tea/Coffee Break4:30-6:00 Plenary Session II, "Economics for the Common Good"

Erik Olsen (University of Missouri, Kansas City), Chair

Gar Alperovitz (University of Maryland), [title TBA]

Neva Goodwin (Tufts University and Global Development and Environment Institute), [title TBA]

Robin Hahnel (American University), [title TBA]

Emily Chamlee-Wright (Beloit College), Commentator

7:30–9:30 Conference Dinner (Salt Lake City Marriott, University Park)

Sunday, June 3

9:00-10:30 Concurrent Sessions – Group H

[H1] Farhad Nomani and Sohrab Behdad's Class and Labor in Iran: Did the Revolution Matter?

Fadhel Kaboub, Chair

Fadhel Kaboub

Firat Demir

Theodore Burczak

Sohrab Behdad, Respondent

Farhad Nomani, Respondent

[H2] Fishbanks: A Role-Playing Game about Sustainable Development

Khalid Saeed

Michael Radzicki

Oleg Pavlov

Souleymane Bah

[H3] Interdisciplinary Insights for Economic Theory

Kevin Quinn, Chair

Dan Nuckols, “Economic History as Literature”

Matko Mestrovic, “Economics and Worldview: Post-Quantum Insights”

W. Robert Brazelton, “Selected Interdisciplinary Inputs into a More Expansive Economic Analysis”

[H4] International Trade and Financial Flows

Faruk Eray Duzenli, Chair

Ozge Ozay, “The Effects of Trade Policy Change on Employment: The Case of Turkish Textile and Clothing Sectors”

Rudiger von Arnim, “Short-Run Adjustment in a Global Model of Current Account Imbalances”

Secil Pacaci, “An Application of Thirlwall’s Law to the Turkish Economy”

[H5] Marxist Research Today

Bruce Roberts, Chair

Al Campbell, “The Dialectical Relation of Human Development and Socialist Transformation”

Hans Ehrbar, “The Tail Wagging the Dog: Parallels between Geophysiology and Marx’s Theory of Capitalism”

John Milios, “‘Means of Payment’ and ‘Means of Purchase’: Marx’s Introduction of Finance”

Minqi Li, “Capitalism, Socialism, and China: A World Historical Perspective”

[H6] Pluralism in Economics Education II

Edward McNertney, Chair

Alison Butler, “The Illusion of Objectivity: Implications for What and How We Teach Economics”

Amy Cramer, “I Don’t Care What You Think”

Irina Peaucelle and Natalia Kuznetsova, “Social Psychology, Education, and Development in Russia”

Rod O’Donnell, “Teaching Economic Pluralism: Adding Value to Students, Economies, and Societies”

[H7] Polanyi

William Waller, Chair

Carl Marklund, “(Dis)embeddedness and Reflexive Modernity”

Huseyin Ozel, “Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse: Marx, Weber, Schumpeter, and Polanyi”

Ramón García Fernández and Bernardo Stuhlberger Wjuniski, “The Welfare State in the Light of the Athenian Economy”

[H8] Policy II

Erik Hake, Chair

Carlos Eduardo Schonerwald da Silva, Adalmir Marquetti, and Matias Verengo, “Participatory Budgeting and Fiscal Federalism in Brazil”

Daniel Gay, “Modernism, Reflexivity, and the Washington Consensus”

Ric Holt and Steve Pressman, “Post Keynesian Economics and Public Policy”

[H9] Practicing Pluralism

Andrew Kliman, Chair

Alan Freeman, "Catechism versus Pluralism: The Heterodox Response to the National Undergraduate Curriculum Proposed by the UK Quality Assurance Authority"

Fred Lee, "Pluralism and Contested Knowledge: Marxian Economics and Working Class Education in Britain, 1900 - 1940"

John B. Davis, "Why is Economics Not Yet a Pluralistic Science?"

10:30–11:00 Tea/Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Plenary Session III, "Pluralism and Economic Education

Martha Starr (American University), Chair

KimMarie McGoldrick (University of Richmond), [title TBA]

Gilles Raveaud (Harvard University), [title TBA]

Yanis Varoufakis (University of Athens), [title TBA]

Susan Feiner (University of Southern Maine), Commentator